

the Cormiers

What They are Saying.....

“The Cormiers present an up-beat vibrant sound with an ear to not only what sounds good, but what works to provoke the audience reaction they want. Their experience in front of thousands of audiences has taught them the value of varying the experience without ever letting the listener get away”

Nagaire Genge, 53 North Magazine

“The Cormiers latest self-titled CD showcases a maturity in both their sound and songwriting. Combining powerful tunes accented by a new image, this family group looks poised to make a significant impact on both the national and international stage”.

Kevin Kelly, Newfoundland Herald

“Awesome performance. They held the audience in the palm of their hands. The Cormiers get better and better with every show.”

Glenn Stanford, St. John’s Sports & Entertainment

“Spectacular family talent with a rich vocal blend of blood harmony and a compelling stage presence. The Cormiers have a great, fresh sound. Mallory Johnson is a force to be reckoned with”.

John Hutton, President Music Industry Association of Newfoundland & Labrador
